MISSIONS SUNDAY

PASS THE BATON

This week we close out our missions theme with a lesson on why is it important to be proactive in passing the baton to future generations.

Sunday PM

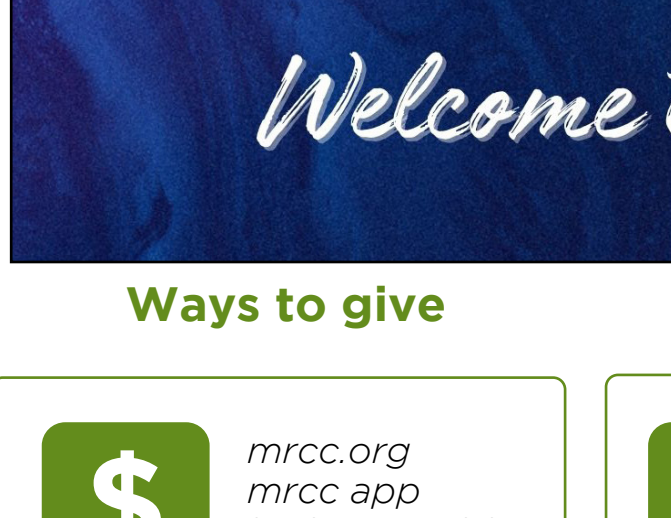

The rich, young ruler was so close and yet so far away. How about you? Are you close to the Lord, or are you one giant step short? Is there anything standing between you and eternal life? Let's take a look at the idea of Almost There and what we need to do to receive eternal life.

THANK YOU

God in his infinite wisdom, knew the church would be family. Jesus tangibly showed us how that family would look by ministering to and loving people. MRCC is family! You have ministered to us and loved on us during the loss of my dad. I am so thankful for each of you who sent cards, texts, hugged us, gave us meals, or prayed over us during this time. We are richly blessed! Andrea, Randoni, Emily, Cadon, Jaxon & Rylon Rieger.

I want to thank everyone for the meals delivered to Andrea and I during the first part of my recovery. The prayers, cards, texts, gifts and flowers were all special! I am truly blessed to have such thoughtful friends. Carolyn McMillon

We want to express our sincere thanks to everyone who had a part in the Wednesday evening service giving tribute to the missionaries and making it such a wonderful evening. We are so honored to be at Memorial Road and have the privilege of being with other missionaries that evening. Gwen & Clyde
