focus on something foundational—our mission as a church. Last year, we introduced a bold and simple mission: To Imitate Christ by Living Good Lives, Doing Good Works, and Sharing Good News. Over the next few weeks, we'll dive deeper into the eight core values that support this mission, beginning with Godly Unity. In a culture that often values being "right" over being "one," we're called to something deeper. It's not just a feelgood idea—it's at the heart of the gospel, modeled by Jesus himself, and rooted in the very nature of our God. So let's ask: What would it look like for the world to see Christians as the leaders in unity—not just in doctrine, but in practice? Let's find out together. OTHER NOTES CREATIONSTATION
