Suffering happens to everyone. Phil navigates for us a deeper, counter-cultural way of understanding suffering - not as something to frantically escape, but as a sacred place where the life like Christ's is quietly born. From Paul's hard-won wisdom, Jesus at Gethsemane, to the explores the mysterious truth that carrying the death of Jesus is what unleashes His life in us.

This truth from scripture will show us a path toward more freedom, less fear, and a love that grows even in the dark. We can learn to suffer with grace, to trust with courage, and to discover hope in the very places we normally would avoid.
